 And call it something, we're quite sure there's no false label on it; quite sure, indeed, that it is just what we call it, or we wouldn't expect to hold our position in the trade very long.
 We haven't labored steadily well on toward the quarter century mark to reach the top in our line of business just to fool away that good name we prize so much on a game of chance like misrepresenting an article of food.

PAST HISTORY UNEARTHED

Washington, January 11.—A special to the N. Y. Sun says: The Washington Star today publishes a two-column article attacking the honesty and veracity of ex-Queen Liliuokalani of Hawaii, who is again in Washington as a claimant for compensation from the Government for what she calls the crown lands belonging to her as Queen.

The article contains among other documents a letter written by Grover Cleveland to Liliuokalani's agents, Messrs. Cummins, Parker and Widemann, who came to Washington in 1894, under the deposed Queen's instructions, to plead with the Cleveland Administration. On arriving in Washington the Commissioners sent the following note to Secretary of State Gresham:

"We, the undersigned, Messrs. Cummins, Parker and Widemann, Commissioners sent by her Majesty Queen Liliuokalani, request an audience of the President of the United States. We desire to ask of his Excellency whether there is any hope for his doing anything for the restoration of the constitutional Government of the Hawaiian Islands."

The reply came in the following letter from President Cleveland, handed to the Commissioners Aug. 15, 1894, by Secretary Gresham:

"Gentlemen: You must permit me to remind you that this interview is not an official one, and that, instead of receiving you in any representative capacity, I meet you as individuals who have travelled a long distance for the purpose of laying a certain matter before me.

"You ask me if there is any hope of my 'doing anything for the restoration of the constitutional government of the Hawaiian Islands.' I suppose that this question is largely prompted by the fact that soon after the overthrowing of the late government of the Queen I investigated that transaction and was satisfied that there had been such an unjustifiable interference in aid of that movement on the part of the representatives of the government of the United States in its diplomatic and naval service, as to call for correction, not only to rectify what seemed to be a wrong done to others, but also, through that rectification, to ward off what appeared to be a danger to American honor and property.

"Fully appreciating the constitutional limitations of my executive power, and by no means unmindful of the hindrances that might arise I undertook the task. Having failed in my plans, I committed the entire subject to the Congress of the United States which had abundant power and authority in the premises. The executive branch of the Government was thereby discharged from further duty and responsibility in the matter, unless moved thereto by Congressional command.

"The Congress has, both by its action and its omission to act, signified that nothing need be done touching American interference with the overthrow of the Government of the Queen.

"Quite lately a Government has been established in Hawaii which is in full force and operation in all parts of the islands. It is maintaining its authority and discharging all of ordinary government functions. Upon general principles, and not losing sight of the special circumstances surrounding this case, the new Government is clearly entitled to our recognition, without regard to any of the incidents which accompanied or preceded its inauguration. This recognition and the attitude of the Congress concerning Hawaiian affairs of course lead to our absolute denial of the least present or future aid or encouragement on my part to an effort to restore any Government heretofore existing in the Hawaiian islands.

"GROVER CLEVELAND."

Judge Widemann, one of the Commissioners, went to London on a mission to obtain the good offices of the English Government, but failed.

 It seems that the chainless has come to stay. Also the 30 inch wheel, it is proving quite popular, and manufacturers generally are making it. The chainless at a high price, the 30-inch at about $5 above roadster rates. Rubber is not likely to be higher, but present prices will be maintained for some time.
